

WHY RED CEDAR?

The Western red cedar can grow to be a thousand years old. The coastal temperate rainforest ecosystem in which these trees thrive took tens of thousands of years to develop. And in the last 150 years, humans have reduced this ecosystem to its last fragments. These remaining cedar giants stand as symbols of what once was – and of what resiliency means.

We know these ancient trees have survived changing climates before. With your support, we can make sure they stand a fighting chance of surviving the climate crisis we face today.

Members of the Red Cedar Circle are committed to making Sierra Club BC part of their legacy.

Like the Western red cedars, they are deeply rooted to this place and to Sierra Club BC's work to protect it. The support these gifts provide is invaluable. They can also be changed at any time to reflect new circumstances.

LEAVE A LEGACY

Legacy giving means leaving Sierra Club BC a gift in your will or estate plan that will help us protect the land and water in honour of your memory. There are several ways to become a Red Cedar Circle Member:

BEQUESTS

Anyone can make a bequest. To do so, you must have a will. If you already have a will, consider adding Sierra Club of BC Foundation as a beneficiary. In order to do this, you can either replace your existing will or add a “codicil” — an extra section.

INSURANCE

You can name us as the owner or beneficiary of your life insurance policy or retirement plan. Contact your retirement plan administrator or life insurance company and complete the appropriate beneficiary designation form.

IN MEMORIAM GIFTS

You can make a special bequest or donation to Sierra Club of BC Foundation as a tribute to a loved one. These gifts will be specially noted in our annual report with the name of the person who is being honoured, and your name if you choose.

SECURITIES

Gifts of securities may be made during your lifetime or as part of a bequest. Giving a gift of securities allows you to experience the joy of giving and to see the benefits of your gift — a living legacy.
