

Thru an indigenous & interconnected lens connecting with city forests Gary Oak Forests

Please check out these links:

- Friends of Todd Creek link
- Restoration guide link
- Stream restoration link
- Coast Salish gardens link
- Pacific Northwest Plant Knowledge Cards available
- Connections close by link
- Where do they exist? link
- Burning practices link
- Restoration of oak forest link
- STWE Prezi points to visit (83 88 170 172 174 186 193 197 199 201 202 203 205 207 210 212 214. 213 219 219 221 225 234 241 243 245 248 250 256 265 271 272 274)
- Long term human management

LOAD YOUR PHONE with an app & go on more walks
E-Flora (web) or Seek (phone) try this or this

Gary Oak Forests Victoria:

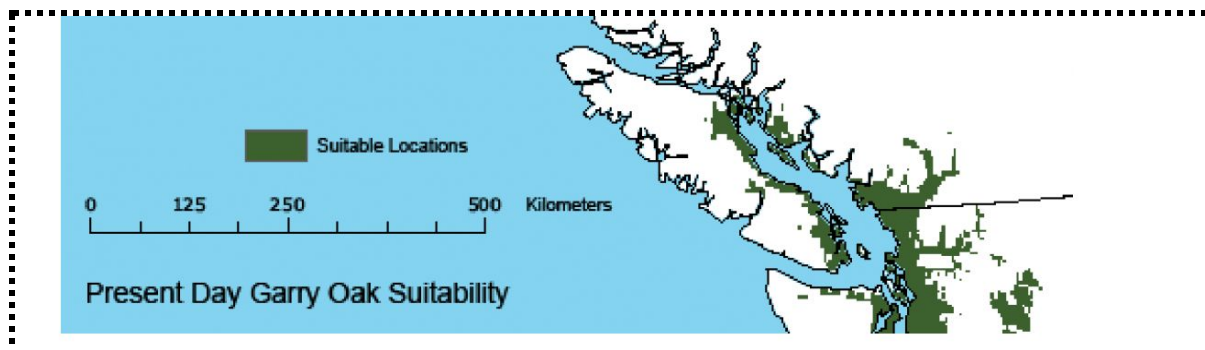

Fort Rodd Hill
ŁÁU,WELNEW John Dean Park
Gore Park
Tod Inlet
Beacon Hill
PKOLS
Mt. Tolmie
Camrose Park
Saanich Native Plants (wetland meadow)

Gary Oak Forests Vancouver:

Stanley Park - known Squamish village
Maplewood Flats - North Vancouver, near Tsleil Waututh
Jericho Beach Park (named for $100 Jericho)
Vanier Park - Senakw (Squamish Language)
Maplewood Flats Conservation Area
Lynn Canyon (suspension bridge & eco centre)
Cates Park - Tsleil Waututh Village

We invite you to consider implementing one action into your daily life/practice from now until summer ~ what can you do?
a collective of small actions could fill a bucket

(start with 1 ~ 1 small grain of sand adds together to become a whole 'bucket')

<https://www.goert.ca/documents/restorationbooklet/GOERT-restoration-booklet-all.pdf>

©kQwa'st'not (Char) & ŚW,XELOSELWET (Tif) 2020/21