

To begin learning about protocol:

We invite you to develop your own learning to understand some of the complexities of protocol....

- This link is to a scholarly work from an indigenous lens called A Pathway Together (APT) ~ written for ease of bridging from a western lens towards an intercultural pathway ....
- APT contains a link to kQwa'st'not dissertation published through Royal Roads University where you may wish to engage with the deeper thinking of "Developing Stewardship Framework Together : ÍY SCÁCEL ~ transforming ourselves to greet and embrace this new day" ...
- Protocol is described & evidenced in Seeing Through Watchers Eyes particularly in pt #'s 2-12 14-20 & 22-42 .....
- Finally we leave you with this link where you are encouraged to consider clicking on a being that most suits you ....
- Very soon there will be an invitation to engage with interested folks to a 'stewardship conversations' coordinated with Flossie that might interest you
- the stewardship conversation will engage protocol as part of the practice of "building strong relationships outside the pod" (orca thinking) ....
- We hope the links & supports suggested will aid you for how you show up within your own 'pod' & beyond ....
- protocol requires building relationships & may also be informed by the many links we have shared with you ....

Now the Question:

How do we navigate all the information we hear especially with seemingly competing indigenous news?

TRIANGULAR POWER RELATIONSHIPS

Indigenous is an identity independent of the triad, and also an ascribed structural location within the triad..

(Tuck&Yang 2012)

